BERGER SINGERMAN BOLSTERS BUSINESS REORGANIZATION TEAM WITH ADDITION OF JENNIFER SCHEIN

September 5, 2024

Berger Singerman, Florida's business law firm, is pleased to announce that Jennifer Schein has joined the firm's Business Reorganization Team as an Associate. She will be resident in the Firm's Miami office. Schein brings a wealth of experience in restructuring and insolvency matters, with a particular emphasis on bankruptcy, corporate restructuring, workouts, creditors' rights, and commercial litigation.

Prior to joining Berger Singerman, Schein was an associate in the Corporate Restructuring group at Brown Rudnick LLP, where she represented official creditor committees, ad hoc groups, and asset purchasers in complex Chapter 11 reorganization cases. Before her time with Brown Rudnick, she served as a Senior Clerk under The Honorable Lisa G. Beckerman with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York.

"We are thrilled to welcome Jennifer to our team," said Paul Steven Singerman, Co-Chair of Berger Singerman. "Her depth of experience in complex restructuring matters and her commitment to excellence align perfectly with our firm's values and the needs of our clients."

Ilyse Homer, Partner and Team Manager of the Business Reorganization Team, added, "Jennifer's track record of success and her proactive approach to client service and the experience she gained from her work with Judge Beckerman make her a terrific addition to our team."

Jennifer earned her J.D. from Fordham University School of Law, where she served as Notes and Articles Editor for the Intellectual Property, Media & Entertainment Law Journal. She earned her LL.M. in Bankruptcy from St. John's University School of Law.
