August 31, 2020

MIAMI, FL – Sept. 1, 2020 – Berger Singerman, Florida's business law firm, is pleased to announce its move to a new office location in West Palm Beach. The firm opened its first Palm Beach County office in Boca Raton in 2006.

Situated centrally on Okeechobee Boulevard in Downtown West Palm Beach, the office provides close accessibility to the federal courts, the Palm Beach County Courthouse as well as the firm's client base.

"While we are all still adjusting to what the 'new normal' workplace will look like, we're excited to expand our presence in the market by relocating our Palm Beach County office to the growing and conveniently located downtown West Palm Beach area," said Jordi Guso, managing partner of Berger Singerman. "Over the past several years we have experienced a steady increase in clients within the market and are confident that this location will advantageously position the firm to extend our service offerings and continue to build upon our strong foundation in South Florida."

Each of the firm's four practice teams, Business Reorganization, Business, Finance & Tax, Dispute Resolution, and Government and Regulatory, is represented in the West Palm Beach office.

The new space abides by COVID-19 safety guidelines and socially distanced desk and offices. It is located at 525 Okeechobee Boulevard. Previously, Berger Singerman's Palm Beach County office was located at One Town Center Road in Boca Raton.
