FLORIDA'S BUSINESS LAW FIRM

CHAMBERS & PARTNERS RANKS PAUL STEVEN SINGERMAN IN ITS GLOBAL 2025 GUIDE FOR THIRTEENTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR

March 3, 2025

Berger Singerman, Florida's business law firm, is pleased to announce that Paul Steven Singerman has been ranked by legal directory, Chambers & Partners, in its Global 2025 Guide for the thirteenth consecutive year. Rankings are based on interviews with clients and peers.

Chambers & Partners is one of the world's leading legal research companies, developing rankings and offering insight about law firms across more than 200 jurisdictions. Its researchers praised Berger Singerman and its ranked attorneys, who were recognized as industry leaders both globally and in the U.S.

Singerman leads the firm's Business Reorganization Team and for decades has been nationally known for handling complex restructuring, insolvency, and bankruptcy cases, including out of court workouts and cross-border matters. Best known for his representation of debtors in corporate reorganization cases and high-stakes litigation, he also represents creditors' committees, lenders, receivers, large unsecured creditors, and asset purchasers. He also has substantial experience in large fraud cases and "bet the company" litigation cases.

Singerman's expertise has been recognized both nationally and globally for decades. In 2003, he was inducted as a Fellow to the American College of Bankruptcy and has been named a "Star Individual" in Chambers & Partners USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business for 15 consecutive years. He is also one of only two attorneys in Florida to be nationally and globally ranked by Chambers & Partners for Bankruptcy/Restructuring. Singerman previously received the prestigious M&A Advisor "Lifetime Achievement Award" and Lawdragon has named him as one of America's 500 leading bankruptcy and restructuring lawyers since 2021.
