BERGER SINGERMAN
FLORIDA'S BUSINESS LAW FIRM

CONSTRUCTION EXECUTIVE "NAVIGATING TARIFFS IN TODAY'S CONSTRUCTION LANDSCAPE—BUT STAY TUNED FOR TOMORROW"

May 22, 2025

View Full Article

The construction industry faces unprecedented challenges as the Trump administration's historic tariff policies reshape supply-chain dynamics, disrupt material pricing and cause a market-wide reevaluation of familiar contractual risk allocations. With the effective U.S. tariff rate already at 8.1% and further fluctuations projected, construction leaders must implement legal and operational strategies immediately, or risk becoming victims of our new and fast-moving market realities.

Related Practices

Construction

Related Practice Teams

Dispute Resolution

Related Team Member(s)

Christopher L. Barnett