Berger Singerman, Florida's business law firm, is pleased to announce that Marc Shuster and Marty Genauer have been recognized in The Legal 500's inaugural US Elite: Miami rankings for International Corporate and M&A. Only 35 attorneys were selected for this category, which highlights leading lawyers handling sophisticated, high-value transactional work in the Miami market. The new "US Elite" initiative recognizes exceptional regional talent outside of global elite firms, spotlighting those driving innovation and growth in their practices.

The new "US Elite" initiative highlights top regional leaders handling sophisticated legal matters outside the global elite firms. Shuster and Genauer were selected for their outstanding work advising domestic and international clients on complex transactions and cross-border matters. Their recognition reflects both their individual excellence and Berger Singerman's growing reputation as a premier alternative to big law in the Miami market and throughout Florida.
