BERGER SINGERMAN CO-FOUNDER PAUL STEVEN SINGERMAN ELECTED CHAIRMAN OF MOUNT SINAI MEDICAL CENTER'S EXECUTIVE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

January 7, 2026

Berger Singerman, Florida's business law firm, is pleased to announce that Co-Founder and Co-Chair Paul Steven Singerman has been elected Chairman of the Executive Board of Trustees of Mount Sinai Medical Center, the largest private, independent, not-for-profit teaching hospital in South Florida.

A longtime member of Mount Sinai's Board of Trustees, Paul has played an active role in advancing the medical center's mission, providing strategic guidance on major initiatives that support clinical innovation, patient-centered care, community access, and philanthropic engagement. He assumes the role at a time of continued growth and expansion for the organization across South Florida.

"I am both honored and humbled to serve as chairman and continue the meaningful work our extraordinary board has championed for many years," said Singerman. "Mount Sinai plays a vital role in the health and well-being of our community, and I look forward to collaborating with our outstanding management team and truly extraordinary medical staff in order to support Mount Sinai's ongoing growth, excellence, and commitment to providing world-class care to every patient we serve."

"Paul's leadership will continue the board's strong tradition of service, insight, and commitment to our mission," said Gino R. Santorio, President and CEO of Mount Sinai Medical Center. "His strategic vision, deep understanding of our community, and unwavering dedication to elevating patient care make him the right leader for this moment as we build on the tremendous momentum across our campuses."

Mount Sinai continues to expand access to high-quality care across South Florida, including major investments in cancer care, cardiovascular services, emergency care, research, clinical innovation, and new facilities across Miami-Dade and Monroe County.
