CHRISTOPHER ANDREW JARVINEN REAPPOINTED TO PEER REVIEW PANEL OF THE FULBRIGHT PROGRAM

June 2, 2025

Christopher Andrew Jarvinen, a partner on the Business Reorganization Team of Berger Singerman LLP, has been reappointed to the Peer Review Panel of the Fulbright Specialist Program. As one of the core international Fulbright Programs within the U.S. Department of State, the Fulbright Specialist Program pairs highly qualified U.S. academics and professionals with host institutions abroad to share their expertise, strengthen institutional linkages, hone their skills, gain international experience, and learn about other cultures while building capacity at their overseas host institutions. Specialists, who represent a wide range of professional and academic disciplines, are competitively selected to join the Fulbright Specialist Roster based on their knowledge, skill sets, and ability to make a significant contribution to projects overseas. Mr. Jarvinen, who has served for the past six years on the Peer Review Panel, reviews applications of individuals seeking to be selected for the Fulbright Specialist Roster. The individuals who are invited to join the Fulbright Specialist Roster are then eligible to be matched with approved projects designed by foreign host institutions from over 150 countries and other areas.

Mr. Jarvinen has been elected to the American College of Bankruptcy, the American Law Institute, and the International Insolvency Institute, and during 2019, he served as a Fulbright scholar at the Bankruptcy Law & Restructuring Research Center of the China University of Political Science and Law located in Beijing, China. He received his law degree from Boston College Law School, his undergraduate degree in Economics from Brown University, graduate degrees in theological ethics and religion from, respectively, Harvard Divinity School and Yale Divinity School, a global Executive Master of Business Administration from the Escola de Administração de Empresas de São Paulo da Fundação Getulio Vargas (FGV-EASEP), both a Postgraduate Diploma in Organisational Leadership and a Master of Science degree in Major Programme Management from the University of Oxford, and is currently pursuing an Executive LL.M. degree at Columbia Law School. He has also attended the University of Cambridge and the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health. For four years, Mr. Jarvinen served as an adjunct professor at FGV-EAESP teaching courses focused on international legal management.
